Train Station
Northwest corner of St. Johns Avenue and 9th Street
This mural depicts a train that has arrived at the Georgia Southern & Florida Railroad depot that was located at the end of today's North 3rd Street. The GSF Railroad was completed from Macon, GA to Palatka in 1890. By this year, railroads were beginning to replace steamships as the primary means of travel for tourists coming to Palatka.

Annie Oakley
Elevenses and St. John
One of the most beloved women in America in the 1800s and early 1900s, Annie Oakley brought her sharp-shooting show to Palatka in 1906. A large crowd, including men and women, watched her perform along the waterfront.

Harlem Nights in Palatka
The Bette Society Synagogues, comprised of Putnam County musicians, made this in Harlem at the height of the Jazz Age. They often returned to Palatka on tour and brought with them many other big names of the age.

William Bartram Mural
East side of North Third Street, at St. Johns Ave.
This mural depicts William Bartram's trip up the St. Johns River in 1774 when he observed a Native American village on the site of present-day Palatka. This mural is dedicated to the memory of Carl & Elizabeth Snyder, founders of the Conlee-Snyder Family.

Veterans Memorial Mural
(Progress)
Northwest corner of 5th Street and St. Johns Avenue
This mural honors those veterans who served and to remember those who have fallen in military service to the United States of America during World War I, World War II, Korea, Vietnam, Persian Gulf, Iraq, and Afghanistan. The mural contains a special tribute to Putnam County Medal of Honor recipient PFC Robert H. Jenkins Jr.
